Mr Cellophane

Reference number pt0021

If someone stood up in a crowd and raised his voice up way out loud and waved his arm and shook his leg, you'd notice him.
If someone in the movie show yelled "Fire in the second row!
This whole place is a powder keg!"
You'd notice him.
And even without clucking like a hen,
ev'ryone gets noticed now and then,
Unless, of course, that personage should be invisible inconsequential me.

Cellophane,
Mister Cellophane should have been my name,
Mister Cellophane, 'cause you can look right thru me, walk right by me
and never know I'm there.
I tell ya Cellophane,
Mister Cellophane should have been my name,
Mister Cellophane, 'cause you can look right thru me, walk right by me
and never know I'm there.

Suppose you was a little cat residin' in a person's flat,
who fed you fish and scratched your ears; you'd notice him.
Suppose you was a woman, wed and sleepin' in a double bed
beside one man for seven years;
You'd notice him.
A human being's made of more than air.
With all that bulk you're bound to see him there,
Unless that human being next to you is unimpressive, undistinguished you know who.

Should have been my name,
Mister Cellophane, 'cause you can look right thru me, walk right by me,
and never know I'm there.

I tell ya
Cellophane,
Mister Cellophane should have been my name,

Mister Cellophane, 'cause you can walk right by me,
look right thru me, and never know I'm there.
Never even know I'm there.
