I Wish I May

Reference number pt0072

Alex

Once upon a time,
a little girl used to climb the grassy hills,
used to hike the forest through, she'd boss around her brothers and she'd tell them what to do.

Her future all planned out,
within an inch, without a doubt;

One perfect house.

Two perfect cars.

She asked the moon.

She wished on stars.

(Alex)

Once upon a time,
that girl was me...

Sukie

Once upon a time,
a little girl, used to

(Sukie)

laze about the lake,
used to swim in it at dawn,
with all her closest girl-friends,
not a stitch of clothing on.

They imagined when alone how they might change
when they were grown.

Yet when the stars would fill the glen she wished to stay as she was then.

(Sukie)
Once upon a time,
that girl was me...

Jane
Once upon a time
a little girl used to

(Jane)
dream about romance,
used to dance the evening through.
She'd laugh and toss her hair back like the movie
stars would do.
In school though she would die each time the boys
would catch her eye.
The ones who smoked.
Who played guitars.

(Jane)
Who pledged their love beneath the stars. Once

Sukie
Once upon a time upon a once

Alex
Once upon a time upon
a once

(All)
upon a time that girl was me.

And ev'rything I am is because of who she was,
and though it may not seem to be,
she's with me still.

Jane
The girl who'd see the boys and run...

Sukie
Swimming circles in the sun...

Alex
Who raced her brothers up the hill;

All

That little girl.
I close my eyes and there she is beneath the wrinkles and the scars.
I'm still that little girl,
wishing blindly on the stars.

I wish I may.
I wish I might.
Feel the joy I feel tonight, forever.
One perfect moment to hold with me still.
I wish I may.
I say I will.

Jane

I'll ask the moon.

Alex

I'll ask the moon...

Sukie

Before I sleep...

Jane

Before I sleep.

Alex

Let this night...

Sukie

Let this night...

Jane

Be mine to keep

All

for always.

This was the moment the magic began.

Jane

I wish I may...

Alex

I wish I may...

Sukie

I wish I may...

Jane

I wish I may...

Alex

I wish I may...

All

I say I can!
