There'll Always Be An England

Reference number pt0116

I give you a toast, ladies and gentlemen,
I give you a toast, ladies and gentlemen,
"May this fair land we love so well in dignity and freedom dwell." Tho' worlds may change and go awry while there is still one voice to cry.

CHORUS

There'll always be an England while there's a country lane, wherever there's a cottage small beside a field of grain.
There'll always be an England while there's a busy street;
wherever there's a turning wheel
a million marching feet.
Red, white and blue,
what does it mean to you?
Surely you're proud,
shout it aloud, Britons awake, the Empire too, we can depend on you, freedom remains these are the chains, nothing can break.

There'll always be an England
and England shall be free, if England means as much to you as England means to me.

There'll always be an England
while there's a country lane,
wherever there's a cottage small
beside a field of grain.

There'll always be an England
while there's a busy street;
wherever there's a turning wheel
a million marching feet.

Red, white and blue,
what does it mean to you?

Surely you're proud,
shout it aloud,
Britons awake,
the Empire too,
we can depend on you,
freedom remains
these are the chains,
nothing can break.

There'll always be an England
and England shall be free,
if England means as much to you
as England means to me.
