Sometimes A Day Goes By

Reference number PT0131

Sometimes a day goes by,
One whole entire day when I don't think of her.

Twenty four hours pass,
I look around and find that I haven't thought of her.

Not even when I'm somewhere we used to go,
Not even if that's someone we used to know.

It's hardly ev'ry day, it's most unusual,
In fact, I can't remember when,
But...

Sometimes a day goes by
when I don't think of her 'til morning comes,
And then
there she is again.
