Homeward Bound

Reference number PT0237

In the quiet misty morning when the moon has gone to bed, when the sparrows stop their singing and the sky is clear and red.
When the summer's ceased its gleaming,
when the corn is past its prime,
When adventure's lost its meaning,
I'll be homeward bound in time.
Bind me not to the pasture:
chain me not to the plow.
Set me free to find my calling and I'll return to you somehow.

If you find it's me you're missing,
if you're hoping I'll return.
To your thoughts I'll soon be list'ning,
in the road I'll stop and turn.
Then the wind will set me racing
as my journey nears its end,
And the path I'll be retracing
when I'm homeward bound again.
Bind me not to the pasture,
chain me not to the plow.
Set me free to find my calling and I'll return to you somehow.

In the quiet misty morning when the moon has gone to bed,
when the sparrows stop their singing,
I'll be homeward bound again.
