As Good As You

Reference number PT0512

Ever on my mind, evermore without you.
I'll never know a thought or feeling that isn't about you.
Nevermore alone, never to forget you.
Not when my life was changed forever the first time I met you.

You're all I know and though I've lost you,
you're someone I can't let go of.

Ev'ry living day, ever filled with sorrow.
How can I face a life without you or even tomorrow?
Evermore without you, were we never meant to be?

Nevermore alone, never to forget you
Not when my life was changed forever the first time I met you.

You're all I know and though I've lost you,
you're someone I can't let go of.

Every living day, ever filled with sorrow
How can I face a life without you or even tomorrow?
Evermore without you.
Were we never meant to be?
