GARY

I've tried thinking of cricket, boxing and school.

Tennis, soccer, snooker and darts.

I've tried them all.

I've tried thinking of so many things that my poor brain hurts.

But nothing, nothing, no nothing seems to work.

You meet a girl at the dance.

She says she fancies you, you know this is your big chance.

You dance real close show her ev'rything you've got.

The way she's dancin' you know she's getting hot.

You take her outside, she coyly says alright.

Oh boy, at last. This could be your night.

Your brain is telling you, "Slow, man, slow."

Oh, oh. Oh, oh, Oh. No.

Premature ejaculation.

It's the curse of the younger generation.

Nothing can compare to the humiliation of premature, oh Premature, ah!

Premature ejaculation.

One more time.

(spoken)

"It's too late"

(sung)

Oh, no!
