My Cousin In Milwaukee

Reference number PT0579

Once I visited my cousin, in Milwaukee, U.S.A.,
She got boyfriends by the dozen
When she sang in a lowdown way.
She was a positive sensation;
The songs that she sang would never miss.
My cousin was my inspiration,
That's how I got like this!

REFRAIN

I got a cousin in Milwaukee;
She's got a voice so squawky,
And though she's tall and kind of gawky,
Oh, how she gets the men!

Her singing isn't operatic,
It's got a lot of static,
But makes your heart get acrobatic
Nine times out of ten.

When she sings hot, you can't be solemn,
It sends the shivers up and down your spinal column;
When she sings blue, the men shout, "What stuff!
That baby is hot stuff!"

So if you like the way I sing songs,
If you think that I'm a wow,
You can thank my squawky cousin from Milwaukee,
Because she taught me how!
