Let's Call It A Day

Reference number PT0680

Our ship of dreams is drifting far from land
For love is now no longer in command,
And the moon and the stars who were once our crew
Have deserted too, now that love is thro',
So why go on to some uncertain fate?
Why wait until it's too late.

Let's Call It A Day; let us say
It was just meant to be sweet memory.
Love won't stay, Let's Call It A Day!
In saying goodbye let us try
To avoid any tears, let's be thankful for years
That were gay; it's easy that way.
Let's have no regrets or a word of blame,
Just like two old vets/friends let's say we took what came.
Let's Call It A Day: let us say
That we just can't pretend.
We know it's the end,
Why delay?
Let's Call It A Day!

It's hard to bid farewell to golden dreams,
The future that we plann'd and all our schemes;
But since fate has decreed that our love must die,
There is nothing left but to say goodbye.
Why must it be that happiness like ours
Should fade away like the flow'rs?

Let's Call It A Day; let us say
It was just meant to be sweet memory.
Love won't stay, Let's Call It A Day!
In saying goodbye let us try
To avoid any tears, let's be thankful for years
