The Kind Of Man I Am

Reference number PT0706

GILBERT

You make it sound so easy to perform one simple task
But what I find far harder is the fact you have to ask what kind of man I am
 As if there's any doubt
 What kind of man am I?
It's not something I've really thought about

(spoken)

What kind of man?

(sung)

The kind of man she married
Who walked her down the aisle
The kind she could depend upon
The kind who made her smile
The kind who still protects her whenever things get rough
The kind of man who once believed that he was good enough

What kind of man am I?

If not Sir Galahad at least I know I try
Your Lionheart who's gentle as a lamb
That's the kind of man I am

The kind of man you turn to who's there in times of need
The kind who tries his level best but won't always succeed
 The kind of man who's steadfast
 A man of modest dreams
A man who disappoints you all too often so it seems

What kind of man am I?

The kind who knows his mind and yet I still fight shy
When you confront me I close up like a clam
That's the kind of man I am

(spoken)

It's no good , Joyce, I can't do it.

(sung)

The kind who would like children but wouldn't press the point
Who lets you make decisions
Then says that they were joint
The kind who somehow wishes he possessed your iron will
The kind of man who hopes that in your heart you love him still

What kind of man am I?
The kind who lets you down
But doesn't know quite why
The kind who's kind and always gives a damn
That's the kind of man I am
That's the kind of man I am

That's the kind of man I am
