I Want You

Reference number PT0710

Mademoiselle Lea

I have seen in your heart the fires of your love, my love
I have felt in your heart the desires of your love, my love
And I long to throw away for ever and a day
These tears and this sadness too, and this madness too!
Oh I want you
Oh I want you

I have seen in your eyes the heat of your love
I have felt in my thighs the raw meat of your love, my love
And I long to throw away for ever and a day
These tears and this sadness too, and this madness too!
Oh I want you
Oh I want you

I have no regrets my love only one wish to make to live side by side, heart to heart, lip to lip, never to part as your body's mine
My flesh thine,
I am the bread and you are the wine and I drink you, drink you, drink you, I drink you

I have felt on your lips the lust of your love.
I have heard from your lips the distrust of your love, my love.
And I long to throw away for ever and a day
these tears and this sadness too, and this madness too!
Oh I want you!
