I Don't Need A Roof

Reference number PT0793

In your face I see a lifetime.
In this place I feel at ease.
Wallpaper peeling, paint wearing thin.
Here's where I end and begin.

I don't need a roof to say I'm covered.
I don't need a roof to know I'm home.
There could be a single shingle-dangling overhead.
I don't need a roof to make my bed.

Close your eyes, I'm still beside you.
No goodbyes needed today.
Hear what the rain says, know what it knows:
After the rain, something grows.

I don't need a roof to say I love you.
I don't need a roof to call you mine.
I don't need adventure in some far away frontier.
I don't need a roof to feel you near.
All I need is you and you forever.
All I feel is true and absolute.
I don't need a legal deed to help me play my part.
I don't need a roof to hold my heart.

Stay with me.
Stay with me.
