No One Can Stop Me Now

Reference number PT0797

JASON

No one can stop me now,
I'll show them all somehow.
Cast adrift I'm left to face the unknown.
But face it I will, and then I'll find my way home.

Too late to turn back now.
I will fulfill my vow.
We'll be free one day, it's all been fortold.
The darkness will fade, the sky will turn to gold.
No one can stop me now.

I'm setting sail from life letting go of all I know.
Don't know where this journey will end but it has to start.
Winds will blow and rains will pour,
but I'll find what I'm searching for.
And though the journey will be long,
my heart will keep on beating strong.

No one can stop me now.
I'll show them all somehow.
We'll be free one day, it's all been fortold.
The darkness will fade, the sky will turn to gold.
No one can stop me now.
No one can stop me now.

POLYMELE

No one can stop you now,
you'll show them all somehow,
cast adrift, I'm left to face the unknown
but one day I pray you'll find your way home
