Caught In The Storm

Reference number PT0798

You can push me away, I can take it
I can make you a promise and break it.
We know the way it goes by now.

Runnin' off just to see if I'll chase you
I pretend I know how to replace you Still we get tangled up somehow.

Hear it thunder and I wonder How long can I hang on.

I'm caught in the storm caught in the rain
Caught in the rush that hides this pain
I'm ready to drown
It's coming down but I feel so alive
Just let me go
Just walk away

If you love someone you never let them stay caught in the storm.

Mmm

As the bars on the Bow'ry are closin' you arrive at the door standin' frozen
You say you thought you'd find me here.

Tell me how I begin to forget you
When you keep coming back and I let you love me until you disappear.

I'm caught in the storm caught in the rain
Caught in the rush that hides this pain
I'm ready to drown
It's comin' down but I feel so alive

Just let me go
Just walk away
If you love someone you never let them stay caught in the storm.

Let me wash away
You can find me after the flood
Let me wash away

I'm caught in the storm caught in the rain
Caught in the rush that hides this pain
When you love someone you find a way to stay caught in the storm.

Hmmm
