Where In The World Is My Prince?

Reference number PT0819

I have countries and counties
And physical bounties
And orchards of orchids and quince.
I have barrels of rubies
And breathtaking boobies
But Where In The World Is My Prince?

Ev'ry day Neiman Marcus massages my carcass,
Sasoon gives my tresses a rinse.
I've been trained by Najinsky
And coached by Lewinsky,
So here In The World Is My Prince?

Then along came a man from a land that was far, far away.
He was strong, he was sweet, he was rich, he was gay!

I have ladies in waiting
And Forbes' highest rating,
It shouldn't be hard to convince
Some young dude to devour me
To come and deflower me,
Oh here In The World Is My Prince?

Then along came a man bearing gifts in a bucket of gold,
He was strong, he was smart, he was sweet, he was rich,
he was old!

And so while I've been sitting
My stocks have been splitting,
And gathering dust ever since.
So, pray, come and corrupt me.
Seduce and abduct me.
Come delve in my treasures
Unspeakable pleasures.
Oh here In The World Is My Prince?

So I learned watching Zsa Zsa
Please some maharaja
With tricks that could make a girl wince.
Send a shy or a proud one,
Just one well endowed one.
Pray, some one starts calling
Before things start falling.
Oh here In The World Is My Prince?
