The World Needs You

Reference number PT1009

Look, nobody said it was gonna be fun,
And if they did, well they were lyin'.
And all those heroes before us would never have won,
If they'd-a thought to give up tryin'.
Tho the path ain't always easy,
And there are days when we're filled with despair,
There would be a great Oscar shaped hole in my heart,
And I'd miss if you weren't there.

Just know the world needs you.
When ev'rything you do feels wrong, just know the world needs
you
To pick yourself up and be strong,
Just know the world needs you,
And all of the beautiful things you do,
Het, Oscar you know that it's true,
But, most of all I believe in you.

What if Batman had never put on his cape?
Now tell me who would Robin be?
Would Harry Potter have ever made good an escape, without his friend Hermione?
If my buddy had never shown me
That it was always within me to fly,
Without my pal with me to show me the way,
Without my best friend, who am I?

Just know the world needs you,
If you should feel you don't belong,
just know the world needs you
To help them sing a better song,
Just know the world needs you,
And all of the wonderful things you do,
You better believe that it's true,
But, most of all know I believe in you.

When the winds get rough,
And both Hogwarts and Gotham seem worlds away,
Remember you're still enough,
You can turn this whole world on its ear
And come through to save the day!

Come on, the world needs you,
And all of the marvels that you do,
I know that you know that it's true and Oscar, buddy, I believe in you!

It all depends on you.

Your buddy needs you.
