Tuesday

Reference number PT1010

Another morning another day,
A breakfast, a bus ride and we're on our way.
Another roll-call another refrain.
Another maths assessment to scramble your brain!
It's just the knowing that something special awaits
That keeps you going till they open up the schoolyard gates!

Because it's Tuesday,
It's the day of the week
When old McNulty's sweetshop opens and we get to sneak a peek at all the candy treats that make McNulty's unique!
And that's what makes Tuesday the greatest day of the week!

When all the pencils don't seem to work,
You've forgotten your homework and Miss goes berserk.
You need to pee but you can't brave the pong.
You get back your latest and the answers are wrong.
It's just the knowing in no time we won't have a care
Cos just as soon as it's home time we'll be heading there!

Because it's Tuesday, and we're too pumped to speak
We know McNulty's got the pure sugar bounty we seek
It's not so much your av'rage sweetshop as a bon-bon boutique!
And that's what makes Tuesday the greatest day of the week!

Marshmallows, lemon drops and gumballs by the score
There's toffee treats and coffee sweets galore.

In all your wildest fantasies you never, ever saw
Such a treasure trove of goodies to explore

Mister McNulty, open the door!

Because it's Tuesday, and ain't we got fun?
It's just like Christmas Day and Easter all rolled up in one
When all the school day's cares and woes and tribulations are done,
There's nothing left to say
But step out of our way,
Because McNulty makes Tuesday
the greatest day of the week!
